JOY IN CHINATOWN, WALL STR CHARLIE JOE FREE

Jury Acquits Him of Murder of Wong Dow in Eleventh

There is great rejoicing in the On Leong Society of Chinatown to-day, for five different pieces with a big cleaver. Charlie Jce was immediately suspected. A charge was made against him, he was indicted and four days ago was placed indicted and four days ago was placed on trial for murder in the first degree before Justice Dowling, in the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court, The case went to the jury yesterday evening after dark. The jury deliberated five hours and handed in a sealed ver-dict. At the opening of court to-day the verdict was read. It acquitted Charlie Joe.

ASLEEP, SHE WALKED TO FALL TO DEATH.

(Special to The Evening World.) LOWELL, Mass., March 29. - Miss Mary Robinson, of Lynn, after a ball, early to-day went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morse, on Bridge street, for the night.

About 2.45 this morning Miss Robinson was found on the sidewalk in front of the house, dead. An open window on the second floor indicated that she had probably walked out in her sleep, the fall resulting in her death.

Bullish sentiment was visibly stimulated by the strength of the stock market to-day. Such active operators on the bull side as James R. Keene, John W. Gates and Edward Wassermann pointed to the early advance in prices as indicative of an irresistible upward trend. It is conceded that the coal strike scare is a restraint on the market, but the bull operators insist that with all uncertainty out of the way, the market will take a long swing upward.
